GERMAN FEDERAL GARDEN SHOW 2007

Every year, you're going to find a Federal Garden Show in Germany presenting beautiful and stunning flowers and plants in a very huge area. But... I couldn't say it better than the organization itself. Here's what they say on their Web site at...

<http://www.buga2007.de/> (click on "English" in the footer area)

"Look forward to an extraordinary 2007 Bundesgartenschau in Gera and Ronneburg! From 27 April to 14 October, the BUGA (Bundesgartenschau - German Federal Garden Show) in the host state of Thuringia is celebrating a unique festival of the senses.

For the first time ever, the garden show is presenting two contrasting areas: Hofwiesenpark (Courtly Meadow Park) in Gera and Neue Landschaft (New Landscape) in Ronneburg. From the first awakening of spring to the florists' autumn show, the BUGA program offers 171 packed days of highlights. Magnificent floral displays, out-of-this-world gardens, fantastic landscapes.

Add to that music, dance, opera and operetta. And a BUGA team that sees service as a matter of course. In Thuringia, Germany's green heart, hospitality is an attitude towards life, and conviviality a tradition."

Now you might ask "Where is Gera and Ronneburg?"

That's located in East-Germany, in the beautiful State Thuringia.

The exhibition goes until October 14. After that is a very good time for the Oktoberfest in Munich, right? ; -)

HOW'S WEATHER IN GERMANY IN SPRING TIME?

Well, it depends. And it's always a bit different. In certain parts of the country it can be sunny with +20 to +25°C, others might have only 10°C.

Either way, it's a good idea to prepare properly by packing some thick clothes for autumn as well as thin clothes for summer into your luggage. :-)

QUESTION & ANSWER

Here is a question submitted through...

<http://www.smart-travel-germany.com/ask-marcus.html>

"Hi Marcus, when you rent a car in Germany, do you have to have an international driver's licence?"

Thanks."

Dear visitor,

Yes, you'll need to have an international driver licence, unless you're from the European Union, therefore with a European Driver Licence, which would be valid in Germany, too.

INSANE BOY REPORT

What a woman, what a life...

I just got married a few days ago. And no, it was NOT an insane decision. It was one from my heart.

The insane decision I took was putting up a photo of my "Home Office Natal, Brazil" on my site (Hint: on the 'About Marcus' page.)

Do I not look insane on that one?

More next issue!

- Your "insane" Marcus :-)

P.S. Oooh, by the way, the overhaul on my Web site is almost done. Figured? :-)
